

They come to Australia promised love,
security and a better life;
they come to us bruised, alone and frightened.
We urgently need your help!

For nearly 25 years Thai Welfare has been helping our clients reclaim their dignity and make a productive life in the Lucky Country. Like many community organisations we cannot rely on the government for help and now must rely on the generosity of the community and our committed volunteers. Please sign up as a regular donor. Every cent of your donation will help make their tomorrow different.
